

Oregon Fish and Wildlife Commission Agenda

Tour:
Thursday, September 15, 2022, 8:00 AM
Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife
Hines District Office
237 Hwy 20 South
Hines, OR 97738

Meeting:
Friday, September 16, 2022 - 8:00 AM
The Historical Central Hotel
Grand Central Room
171 N Broadway
Burns, OR 97720

Thursday, September 15, 2022

- 8:00 AM Meet at ODFW Hines District Office, 237 S Hwy 20 Hines, OR 97914
Introductions and Facilities Discussion
- Philip Milburn, Malheur Watershed District Manager
 - Nick Myatt, East Region Manager
- 8:30 -9:00 AM Travel to Idlewild Campground Area
Directions from Burns: travel 2.8 miles on US Highway 20 to the junction with US Highway 395, turn left onto US Highway 395 and head north. Follow US Highway 395 for approximately 14.6 miles to the junction with Forest Road 2820. Continue on Forest Road 2820 for 0.8 miles to the junction with Idlewild Campground Road. Follow Idlewild Road for approximately 1 mile to the campground.
- 9:00 – 10:50 AM Wolf Management Discussion; Idlewild Campground Area
- Nick Myatt, East Region Manager
 - Roblyn Brown, Wolf Program Coordinator
 - Brian Ratliff, District Wildlife Biologist
 - Holly Tuers-Lance, Assistant Wolf Biologist
- 10:50 – 11:00 AM Travel to next stop
43.80731 x 118.93718 Malheur National Forest Road 3935 at Marshall Creek
- 11:00 – 11:50 AM Dry Forest Resiliency
- Tom Segal, Malheur Watershed District Habitat Biologist
 - Lee Foster, Assistant District Wildlife Biologist
 - Kalysta Adkins, East Region Diversity Biologist
- 12:00 -12:10 PM Travel to Idlewild Campground group shelter
- 12:10 – 1:00 PM Lunch
- 1:00 -1:45 PM Travel to Lake Creek, Logan Valley Area
- 1:45 -3:00 PM Bull Trout Restoration
- Dave Banks, District Fish Biologist
 - Brandon Haslick, Burn Paiute Tribe Fisheries Program Manager
- Burns Paiute Program Updates
- Brandon Palmer, Burns Paiute Wildlife Program Manager
- 3:00 -4:15 Return to ODFW Hines District Office