

BEFORE THE OREGON FISH AND WILDLIFE COMMISSION

In the Matter of Commercial Fishing Licenses
Held by Longs Seafood Market, LLC

Notice of Intent to Revoke
Commercial Fishing License and Opportunity for a Hearing

I. BACKGROUND

Longs Seafood Market, LLC (Longs Seafood Market) currently holds a 2023 Wholesale Fish Dealer License #106SB.

The Oregon Fish and Wildlife Commission (Commission) is required to revoke a commercial fishing license if that licensee is convicted of three or more violations of commercial fishing laws within a three-year period. Under this authority, and based on the following facts, the Department now proposes to revoke the commercial fishing license held by Longs Seafood. This notice explains the State's allegations against you and how you may respond to them.

II. FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Longs Seafood Market currently holds a 2023 Wholesale Fish Dealer License #106SB. Exhibit A (Longs Seafood Market Commercial Fishing Licenses).
2. Longs Seafood Market was convicted in the State of Oregon for a violation "Unlawful Possession of Commercially Caught Fish/Shellfish," per ORS 509.006 (case number 22VI109435). The violation occurred on 10/10/22, and Longs Seafood Market was convicted (guilty) in Multnomah County Court. Exhibit B (Case # 22VI109435).
3. Longs Seafood Market, LLC was convicted in the State of Oregon for a violation "Failure to Submit fish Receiving Ticket," per ORS 508.535 (Case number 22VI113902). The violation occurred on 7/15/22 and Longs Seafood Market, LLC was convicted (guilty) in Coos County Court. Exhibit C (Case # 22VI113902).
4. Longs Seafood Market was convicted in the State of Oregon for a violation Class A "Failure to Complete Fish Receiving Ticket," per ORS 508.535 (Case number 22VI61228). The violation occurred on 6/8/22 and Longs Seafood Market was convicted (guilty) in Multnomah County Court. Exhibit D (Case # 22VI61228).
5. Longs Seafood Market was convicted in the State of Oregon for a violation "Failure to Submit Fish Receiving Ticket," per ORS 508.535 (case number 21VI30986). The violation occurred on 3/21/21, and Longs Seafood Market was convicted (guilty) in Multnomah County Court. Exhibit E (Case # 21VI30986)

6. Longs Seafood Market was convicted in the State of Oregon for a violation “Failure to Maintain Proper Fish Dealer Records – Crab Traceability,” per ORS 508.535 (case number 21VI15589). The violation occurred on 2/5/21, and Longs Seafood Market was convicted (guilty) in Multnomah County Court. Exhibit F (Case # 21VI15589).
7. Since 2021, Longs Seafood Market has been convicted of five violations of Oregon’s commercial fishing laws, including four convictions that occurred in 2022 (e.g. violations identified in Finding of Fact #2-6, above, occurred within the years 2021-2022).

III. APPLICABLE LAW

This is a list of statutes and administrative rules that are relevant to this Notice:

1. Oregon Revised Statutes (ORS) 506.001 provides that:

All laws enacted for the protection, propagation and preservation of food fish or for the protection and development of commercial fisheries in this state, including but not limited to ORS chapters 506, 507, 508, 509, 511 and 513 may be cited as the commercial fishing laws.

2. ORS 508.025 provides that:

(1) It is unlawful for any person, without first procuring a license from the State Fish and Wildlife Commission, to:

(a) Take food fish in any of the waters of this state for commercial purposes or land food fish in this state for commercial purposes.

(b) Buy, sell or otherwise deal in food fish for commercial purposes.

(c) Process or can food fish for commercial purposes.

(2) In a prosecution under this section, it is no defense that a person did take the person’s own food fish for commercial purposes.

3. ORS 508.035 provides that:

(1) Separate licenses are required for each:

(a) Person other than an employee operating as a canner of food fish.

(b) Person other than an employee operating as a wholesale fish dealer, for each separate place of business.

(c) Individual acting or engaged as a fish buyer by a person licensed under paragraph (a) or (b) of this subsection.

(d) Person licensed under paragraph (a) or (b) of this subsection, for each permanent site or location operated by such person as a fish-buying station.

(e) Individual taking or assisting in the taking of food fish for commercial purposes as described in ORS 508.235 (Commercial fishing license).

(f) Boat, used in taking food fish for commercial purposes, as described in ORS 508.260 (Boat license).

(g) Single delivery of food fish from the Pacific Ocean for commercial purposes in the absence of licenses under paragraphs (e) and (f) of this subsection.

(h) Person other than an employee operating as a fish bait dealer, for each separate place of business.

(i) Individual taking or assisting in the taking of food fish for sale to a fish bait dealer.

(2) The State Fish and Wildlife Commission shall classify and define the various licenses provided for in this section and shall direct the State Fish and Wildlife Director to issue licenses accordingly and the classification shall be final

2. ORS 508.485 provides that:

(1) Except for vessel licenses described in ORS 508.285 and 508.470 and vessel permits described in ORS 508.775 to 508.796, 508.801 to 508.825, 508.880, 508.883, 508.889 to 508.910 and 508.926, the State Fish and Wildlife Commission may, in its discretion, revoke for the remainder of the license or permit year any license or permit issued to a person under the authority of the commission, or the State Fish and Wildlife Director, pursuant to the commercial fishing laws, and in its discretion may refuse the issuance of any license or permit issued under the authority of the commission, or director, pursuant to the commercial fishing laws, during any period not to exceed one year from the date of the license or permit revocation order:

(a) Upon conviction within this state of any person of violation of any of the commercial fishing laws or rules;

(b) Upon receiving notice from the agency that regulates commercial fishing in the State of Washington of the conviction of any person in that state of an offense that was a violation of Columbia River commercial fishing rules adopted pursuant to the Columbia River Compact and that if committed in this state would be grounds for license revocation pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection;

(c) Upon conviction within this state of any person for violation of ORS 498.022, or any rule adopted pursuant thereto, involving game fish, through the use of a license issued pursuant to the commercial fishing laws; or

(d) Upon conviction within this state of a person for violation of ORS 164.043 to 164.065 when the subject of the theft is commercial fishing crab rings or crab pots, or the crabs taken therefrom.

(2)(a) Except for vessel licenses described in ORS 508.285 and 508.470 and vessel permits described in ORS 508.775 to 508.796, 508.801 to 508.825, 508.880, 508.883, 508.889 to 508.910 and 508.926, a court may order the commission to revoke any licenses or permits issued to a person under the authority of the commission, or the director, pursuant to the commercial fishing laws. Such revocations may not exceed a period of two years from the date of the license or permit revocation order. Revocation of licenses and permits is in addition to and not in lieu of other penalties provided by law.

(b) The license and permit revocation provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection apply to the following persons:

(A) Any person who is convicted of a violation of the commercial fishing laws, or any rule adopted pursuant thereto, or who otherwise fails to comply with the requirements of a citation in connection with any such offense;

(B) Any person who is convicted of a violation of ORS 498.022, or any rule adopted pursuant thereto, involving game fish, through the use of a license issued pursuant to the commercial fishing laws; or

(C) Any person who is convicted of a violation of ORS 164.043 to 164.065 when the subject of the theft is commercial fishing crab rings or crab pots, or the crabs taken therefrom.

(c) When a court orders the revocation of a license or permit under the provisions of this subsection, the court shall take up any such licenses and permits and forward them, together with a copy of the revocation order, to the commission. Upon receipt thereof, the commission shall cause revocation of the appropriate licenses and permits in accordance with the court order.

(d) Nothing in this subsection requires a court to take additional action, after the conclusion of the sentencing hearing, to secure the licenses or permits if the defendant does not have the license or permit in the defendant's possession at the time of sentencing.

(3) Any person whose license revocation involves the buying, selling or dealing of food fish is prohibited from engaging in such activity under any license issued by the commission during the period the court orders the revocation.

3. ORS 509.006 provides that:

It is unlawful to take, possess, buy, sell or otherwise handle any food fish in or from any waters of this state, during times, in a manner or by means of the fishing gear prohibited by law.

2. Oregon Administrative Rule (OAR) 635-006-0235 provides that:

(1) Except as provided in section (2) of this rule in accordance with ORS 508.485 and 508.490, upon the third conviction or third forfeiture of bail within three years for violation of any of the Commercial Fishing Laws of the State of Oregon or for conviction in the State of Washington of an offense which was a violation of Columbia River Commercial fishing rules adopted pursuant to the Columbia River Compact, by any person, the Commission shall initiate contested case proceedings in accordance with the Administrative Procedures Act (ORS Chapter 183) to revoke, or refuse to issue, licenses issued under the Commercial Fishing Laws (Chapters 506–513).

(2) Convictions or forfeiture of bail for exceeding trip limits in the groundfish trawl fishery, where the trip limit has not been exceeded by more than 15%, shall not be considered as a conviction or forfeiture of bail for purposes of section (1) of this rule.

(3) The Commission shall appoint a hearings officer to conduct the contested case hearing prescribed in section (1) of this rule.

(4)(a) In addition to the hearings officer, the Commission may appoint a three-member License Revocation Board to be present at the hearing and to make advisory recommendations to the Commission concerning revocation or refusal to issue a license to that person. License revocation boards shall consist of members representing the following fishing industries:

- (A) Troll salmon;
- (B) Gillnet salmon;
- (C) Groundfish and shrimp;
- (D) Crab;
- (E) All other commercial fisheries.

(b) Only members from the appropriate License Revocation Board shall participate in hearings related to their subject area. The hearings officer shall notify the appropriate License Revocation Board of the date, time and place of the hearing, and shall provide any other public notice required by ORS Chapter 183;

(c) At the hearing, the board may request the hearings officer call additional witnesses or seek additional evidence;

(d) At the conclusion of the hearing, the board shall prepare written recommendations concerning the disposition of the case, which the License Revocation Board shall serve on all parties and forward to the Commission.

(5) A proposed order in the form prescribed by OAR 137-003-0070, including findings of fact and conclusions of law, shall be prepared by the hearings officer, served on all parties, and shall be forwarded to the Commission.

(6) In accordance with ORS Chapter 183, the Commission shall provide an opportunity to all parties to respond in writing within a period set by the Commission to the proposed order of the hearings officer and to the written recommendations submitted by the License Revocation Board.

(7) In deciding whether to revoke or refuse to issue a license, the Commission shall consider:

- (a) The recommendation of the License Revocation Board;
- (b) The gravity of the most recent offense, including whether the offense was a felony and whether the offense involved a closed season, closed area, or unlawful gear;
- (c) The gravity of the other commercial fishing offenses of which the person has been convicted or forfeited bail;
- (d) The impact of the offense on the fisheries resources of the state or, where relevant, on the State of Washington, including consideration of the species involved;
- (e) Whether the person also has been convicted of or forfeited bail for violations of the Wildlife laws of the State of Oregon.

IV. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Since 2021, you were convicted five times for violations of the commercial fishing laws of the State of Oregon (5 class A violations), including 3 convictions within a one-year period (2022).
2. Accordingly, pursuant to ORS 509.485(1) and OAR 635-006-0235, the Commission must revoke Longs Seafood Market's commercial licenses for the remainder of this year (2023).
3. In addition, the Commission may refuse to issue any Commercial Fishing permits or licenses for one year from the date of issuance of the final order revoking the following permits or licenses:
 - a. 2023 Wholesale Fish Dealer License #106SB;

V. PROPOSED ORDER

The Commission proposes to issue the following order:

The 2023 Wholesale Fish Dealer License #106SB in the name of Longs Seafood Market, LLC and all individual buyer licenses associated with Longs Seafood, LLC are hereby revoked for the remainder of the calendar year, 2023, and no license or permit issued under the authority of the commission, or director, pursuant to the commercial fishing laws may be issued to Longs Seafood Market, LLC until one year from the issuance date of the Commission's Final Order in this case.

VI. HEARING

You have the right, if you so request as specified below, to have a formal contested case hearing before an administrative law judge regarding the Department's proposal to revoke your 2023 commercial fishing licenses and refuse issuance of any licenses or permits authorized under Oregon's Commercial Fishing Laws. Such a hearing would be governed by ORS Chapter 183 as well as OAR 635-001-0005 and OAR 137-003-0501 through -0700, at which time you may be represented by an attorney and subpoena and cross-examine witnesses. Your request must be made in writing to the Department, must be received within twenty-one (21) calendar days from the date of service of this notice, and must identify those portions of this Notice that you think are incorrect. Following receipt of a timely request for hearing, the State's Office of Administrative Hearings will notify you of the date, time, and place of the hearing.

VII. FINAL ORDER

If you fail to file a timely request for hearing or fail to appear at a scheduled hearing, the Department may issue a default final order and judgment. If the Department issues a final order by default, the Department designates its files on this matter as the record for purpose of proving a prima facie case upon default.

Issued this 29th day of September, 2023.

Notice of Hearing-Notice to Members of the Armed Forces

Active duty Service members have a right to stay these proceedings under the federal Service members Civil Relief Act. For more information, contact the Oregon State Bar at 800-452-8260, the Oregon Military Department at 503-584-3571 or the nearest United States Armed Forces Legal Assistance Office through <http://legalassistance.law.af.mil>. The Oregon Military Department does not have a toll free telephone number.

In order to qualify for the protections of the SCRA, a service member must show that he/she is: (1) an active duty service member; or (2) a member of the reserve component activated to serve in active federal service; or (3) a National Guard service member under Title 10 of the US Code; or (4) a National Guard service member under Title 32 of the US Code called to active duty for 30 days or more pursuant to a contingency mission specified by the President or Secretary of Defense or serving on Annual Training orders. Some provisions of the SCRA also cover dependents of qualifying service members who rely on the service member for at least half of their income. The SCRA continues to provide some protections for a short period of time after service is concluded. Additional protections may be available under ORS 399.238 if you are a member of the Oregon National Guard. It is important that you be aware of your dates of services at the time you contact the OAH and at hearing.

If you think you may qualify under one of the above criteria it is important that you notify the OAH, and the agency that initiated the action, prior to your hearing date so that steps can be taken to ensure that your rights under the SCRA are followed. You may also contact your Judge Advocate General at the installation where or near where you serve or your chain of command for more information regarding your rights under the SCRA.

Notice to Veterans of the Armed Forces

In 2011, the Oregon Legislature enacted Senate Bill 241 (SB 241). The purpose of SB 241 is for state agencies to assist in informing veterans of access to benefits. The Oregon Department of Veteran's Affairs has published a 40-page comprehensive benefit magazine containing state and federal veteran benefits information including: the disability claims process; contact information for veteran services offices; how to access health care; veteran transportation; veteran trauma education; long term care options; dependent and survivor benefits; burial benefits; education options; home loan information; taxation deferral and exemptions; employment resources and preferences; auto adaptive and clothing allowances; ID, DMV license plates; medals and records; homelessness resources, veterans court's information and recreation benefits and memorials. You can read the entire magazine online at: <http://www.oregon.gov/odva/Documents/Veterans%20Benefits%20Magazine%202012%20sm.pdf>

Comunicado de Audiencia – Comunicación a Miembros de las Fuerzas Armadas

Los miembros de las Fuerzas Armadas (Ejército, Marina, Aeronáutica, Infantería de Marina, Guardia Costera y Guardia Nacional) podrán aspirar a la protección acordada por “Servicemembers’ Civil Relief Act” (SCRA) (Ley de Asistencia Civil a miembros del Servicio) 501 50 USC § y normas relacionadas, conforme a enmienda. El SCRA otorga protecciones a miembros del servicio y a las personas a su cargo que reúnan requisitos específicos. Quienes reúnan los requisitos del SCRA podrán someter su pedido ante el “Office of Administrative Hearings” (OAH) (Oficina de Audiencias Administrativas) solicitando su diferimiento por causa de servicio militar. El SCRA suministra, además, otras protecciones. Para más informaciones, los miembros del servicio podrán contactar el “Oregon State Bar” desde el territorio del Estado a través de su línea gratuita, llamando al (800) 452-8260 / (503) 620-0222 ó al Oregon Military Department, llamando al (800) 452-7500. Podrá accederse al “Legal Assistance Legal Services Locator” de las Fuerzas Armadas de los EEUU a través de: legalassistance.law.af.mil

Para aspirar a las protecciones del SCRA, el miembro del servicio deberá presentar evidencias de ser: miembro activo del servicio, o (2) miembro del módulo de reserva activado para prestar servicios en el servicio federal activo; o (3) miembro del servicio de la Guardia Nacional, de conformidad al Title (Título) 10 del US Code (Código de los EEUU) o (4) miembro del servicio de la Guardia Nacional de acuerdo al Title (Título) 32 del US Code (Código de los EEUU) llamado para cumplir servicios activos durante 30 días o más en cumplimiento de misiones eventuales especificadas por el Presidente o la Secretaría de Defensa o en servicio de disposiciones de Entrenamiento Anual. Algunas de las provisiones del SCRA cubren también a las personas a cargo de los miembros del servicio que tengan derecho y que representen por lo menos la mitad de su ingreso. El SCRA continuará proporcionando algunas protecciones por un breve periodo de tiempo una vez que el servicio haya sido completado. Los miembros del “Oregon National Guard” podrán contar con protecciones adicionales, de conformidad con ORS 399.238. Es importante que conozca las fechas de servicios, tanto en el momento en que contacte el OAH, como en el momento de la audiencia.

De considerarse encuadrado dentro de los requisitos mencionados, es importante que, con anterioridad a la fecha de audiencia, notifique al OAH y a la agencia en la que inició la acción, de manera de poder tomarse los recaudos necesarios para asegurar que los derechos otorgados por SCRA sean tenidos en consideración. En relación a los derechos mencionados en SCRA y, para mayor información, podrá también contactar al “Judge Advocate General” de la sede en la que presta servicios, a una cercana a ésta, o a su cadena de commandos.

Aviso a los veteranos de las fuerzas armadas

En 2011, el Cuerpo Legislativo de Oregon promulgó el Proyecto de Ley del Senado número 241 (SB 241). El propósito del SB 241 es que las agencias estatales ayuden a informar a los veteranos sobre el acceso a beneficios. El Departamento de Asuntos para Veteranos de Oregon ha publicado una completa revista de 40 páginas sobre los beneficios, la cual contiene información sobre beneficios estatales y federales para veteranos incluyendo: el proceso de reclamación por discapacidad; información de contacto de las oficinas de servicios para veteranos; cómo obtener acceso a atención médica; transporte para veteranos; educación sobre trauma para veteranos; opciones de atención médica a largo plazo; beneficios para dependientes y sobrevivientes; beneficios funerarios; opciones educativas; información de préstamos para vivienda; aplazamiento de impuestos y exenciones; recursos y preferencias laborales; adaptaciones para vehículos y asignaciones para ropa; identificaciones, placas DMV; medallas y registros; recursos de vivienda, información legal para veteranos y beneficios recreativos y de monumentos. GOOD MORNING,

WE SAMPLED THE FISH FROM FISH TICKET #3453204. ONE OF THE FISH WE SAMPLED WAS A DEAD KELP GREENLING. HOWEVER, THERE IS NO DEAD KELP GREENLING RECORDED ON THE FISH TICKET.

PLEASE ADD ONE POUND OF DEAD KELP GREENLING (SPECIES CODE 480, CONDITION 0, GRADE 0) TO THIS FISH TICKET.

THANK YOU,
KATLYN
