Jeffrey Klinefelter was born and raised in the small town of Etna Green Indiana. AMERICAN PIKA

2025 Habitat Conservation
by Terri Neal

Terri Neal has lived throughout the US and finally settled in the beautiful Pacific Northwest. She has a keen interest in animals and the natural world and received a biology degree from Hiram College in Ohio and Arizona State University. Having loved to draw and create from an early age, Terri has explored many mediums: pencils, fibers, ceramics, and metals. Pencils were her first love, and she has begun exploring them again, combining them with watercolor, pastels, and ink. Her realistic style conveys her love of the subject matter and color. Her quest is to find the soul and whimsy in each of her animal subjects.

Terri has received multiple awards for her drawings from Cannon Beach Arts Assoc. Miniature's show, DC201 Colored Pencil Show, Lake Oswego Festival of the Arts and 2018 Best of Show and Mayors choice award from the juried Beaverton Arts Mix. Terri's drawings have been selected to be included in the books - Colored Pencil Cats & Dogs and CP Treasures from Ann Kullberg.

Her drawings have been juried into the 25th, 27th, 28th and 30th CPSA International Exhibits and the 2020 and 2021 DSWF Wildlife Artist of the Year Exhibition at the Mall Galleries in London. Terri is a signature member of the Colored Pencil Society of America and a signature member of Artists for Conservation. Terri's art is on permanent display in Beaverton City Hall. Twenty percent of her art sales go to wildlife conservation.

CALIFORNIA QUAIL

2025 Upland Game Bird Stamp
by Buck Spencer

I am a self-taught wildlife artist from Junction City, Oregon. I started art using pencil then transitioned into painting. I began painting with oils and eventually progressed to using mostly acrylic paints.

My father worked for Wildlife Service's most of my life, inspiring me to start studying and drawing animals at a very young age. My older brother is a Wildlife Biologist and Outdoor Writer, so my family and I are very passionate about wildlife culture. This in turn inspires and motivates me while completing my wildlife paintings.

Recently I have won the California duck stamp contest, Louisiana duck stamp contest, the Hawaii Game bird stamp contest and placed 4th in the Federal Duck Stamp Contest.

Aside from painting, I enjoy fishing, hunting and wildlife photography.
