November 4, 2022

Dear Artist,

Thank you for entering the 2022 Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife (ODFW) Stamp Art Contest(s). On November 4, 2022, the judging of the waterfowl, upland game bird, and habitat conservation stamp contests took place at our Salem Headquarters office.

A total of 21 entries were received depicting Mountain Quail for the upland game bird stamp contest; 13 entries depicting Greater Scaup for the waterfowl stamp contest; and 37 entries depicting select strategy species for the habitat conservation contest. The winning entries and top finalist were as follows:

Waterfowl

1. Greater Scaup by Frank Dolphens of Omaha, NE
2. Greater Scaup by Richard Clifton of Milford, DE
3. Greater Scaup by Jeffrey Klinefelter of Etna Green, IN

Upland Game Bird

1. Mountain Quail by Marissa Gibson of Springfield, OR
2. Mountain Quail by Jessica Reed of Sawyer, MI
3. Mountain Quail by Lawrence M. Simons of Lebanon, OR

Habitat Conservation

1. Western Gray Squirrel by Chris Goins of Sheridan, AR
2. Rainbow Trout by Michael P. Ashmen of Summerville, SC
3. Taylor's Checkerspot Butterfly by Janette Stiles of Union, WA

After the judging we held a public viewing of the entries. Thank you for entering the art contest(s) and supporting Oregon's wildlife. We invite you to participate in any or all of our stamp competitions next year. The species for the 2024 contests will be announced early next year.

Information on our programs and photographs of all the contest entries found be viewed on our website:
